MONTREAL, QUEBEC -- (Marketwired - Nov. 6, 2013) - Nevado Resources Corporation (TSX VENTURE:VDO) (FRANKFURT:NSV) ("NEVADO" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has retained the services of Dr. Qiang Yu as a metallurgical process consultant to the Company.

Dr. Qiang Yu is President and CEO of Cymco Technologies, LLC, a technology company specializing in the global supply of metallurgical engineering solutions. He has extensive experience in the study of metallurgical processes, including 18 years with USG Corporation Technology Innovation Center. He has also published numerous articles in prestigious academic journals and holds 41 U.S. patents and two Chinese patents, as well as six U.S. and Chinese patents pending. Dr. Yu has a Ph.D. in metallurgical engineering from the University of Utah and a Master's degree in mineral processing and coal beneficiation from China University of Mining & Technology.

Michael Curtis, President and Chief Executive Officer of NEVADO, said that: "We are very pleased to have the services of Dr. Qiang Yu, who has extensive knowledge and expertise in the processing of the minerals found at our projects. We believe he will make a significant contribution to the development of the flagship La Blache titanium-vanadium-iron project in Northern Quebec."

The Company will grant Dr. Qiang Yu 100,000 options at $0.10 per share for a period of five years, pursuant to the terms of the Company's stock option plan.
