12.02.2014 | GlobeNewswire

CARSON CITY, Feb. 12, 2014 - Del Toro Silver Corp. (OTCBB:DTOR) ("Del Toro" or the "Company") is pleased to provide this corporate update on its recent activities and upcoming plans.

Del Toro has initiated a "rebranding" program in order to best align its focus and goals with a new market image. The program will consist of a Company name change, new logo, new website and an associated investor relations campaign. Management believes such a program will enhance market awareness of the Company and provide a fresh start to facilitate the anticipated growth of the Company in 2014 and the future.

The Company confirms that, over the past 12 months, the Chief Financial Officer has evaluated various mining opportunities that he believes hold merit. In keeping with Del Toro's business strategy, these projects consist of past producing high-grade gold mines located in the Western United States. The Company will perform additional due diligence on these projects and will continue to keep its shareholders updated as to any further developments on these ventures.

Del Toro's management also confirms that it is committed to diligently working with the Company to see all of its projects come to fruition. "Last year was a terrible year in the mining sector as a whole, with many junior companies going out of business" explains CFO Patrick Fagen. "While it may appear to our shareholders that management has not been very productive, we have been very active in our efforts to position the company for strong growth in 2014."
