

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Jun 21, 2016) - Starcore International Mines Ltd. (TSX:SAM) ("Starcore" or the "Company") regrets to report the fatality of an employee that occurred yesterday at its San Martin Mine in Queretaro, Mexico.

"We are deeply saddened over the loss of our colleague, an experienced underground miner at our San Martin Mine," said Robert Eadie, President & Chief Executive Officer of the Company, who flew to Mexico upon hearing of the fatal accident. "Work-related losses are tragic and felt grievously by Starcore and our communities, and we extend our deepest sympathies to our colleague's family and friends. The safety of our employees is of utmost importance for Starcore and we will continue to take every measure to eliminate all workplace accidents and ensure the workplace is safe for everyone."

The accident was an isolated incident that occurred during wall and ceiling ground support installation in a cut-and-fill stope in the mine's San Martin area. Starcore is working with the local authorities on completing a final report on their investigation. Operations at the mine outside of this stope continue and all crews have been fully debriefed on the accident. In the meantime, the plant is operating normally.
