

Universal Copper will not Proceed with Gachala Acquisition

24.09.2019 | ACCESS Newswire

VANCOUVER, September 24, 2019 - Universal Copper Ltd. ("Universal Copper" or the "Company") (TSXV:UNV)(OTCPINK:ECMXF)(Frankfurt:3TA1), announces that it will not be proceeding with the previously announced acquisition of the Gachala copper project in Colombia (see news release dated February 20, 2019).

Mr. Clive Massey, Chief Executive Officer of Universal Copper, states: "Management has determined it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders not to continue with the acquisition at this time. We will focus on building our property portfolio and advancing our Poplar Copper project in northwestern British Columbia."

The Company will continue its planned exploration at the Poplar, which is open at surface and to depth and is located in an area of British Columbia the Company believes to be ideal for possible mine development with excellent mining related infrastructure throughout the area, Rail head, power and a deep-water port are nearby. Management continues to review and investigate new exploration and or development opportunities on an ongoing basis.
