

Pretium Resources Inc. Streamlines Management Structure

06.11.2020 | GlobeNewswire

VANCOUVER, Nov. 05, 2020 - Pretium Resources Inc. (TSX/NYSE: PVG) (Pretium; or the Company) announces that, as part of an effort to streamline its management structure, Michelle Romero, Executive Vice President, Corporate Affairs and Sustainability, will be departing the Company in December and that John Hayes, Senior Vice President, Business Development and Investor Relations will be departing the Company on November 6, 2020.

Ms. Romero joined Pretium in 2011 shortly after its initial public offering and was responsible for the Company's communications. Ms. Romero's responsibilities increased in step with Pretium's growth and she played a key role in the negotiation of benefits agreements and the permitting of the Brucejack Mine. With the advent of production, Ms. Romero assumed the role of Executive Vice President, Corporate Affairs and Sustainability and managed the Company's developing capacity in sustainability, risk, human resources and investor relations.

Michelle's leadership over the last nine years has been instrumental to Pretium's success in transitioning from exploration and development to a mid-tier gold producer," said Jacques Perron, President and Chief Executive Officer of Pretium. "We thank Michelle for her many contributions to the Company, from fostering a strong social license to driving the execution of the Company's sustainability program, and wish her much success in her future endeavors."

Mr. Hayes joined the Company in 2019, in charge of business development and investor relations.

John has greatly contributed to Pretium's success, both within and beyond the areas of business development and investor relations," said Mr. Perron. "We thank John for his service, leadership and friendship, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors."
