

Nuclear Vision Announces Changes to Leadership and The Board of Directors

29.10.2025 | Newsfile

Vancouver, October 29, 2025 - Nuclear Vision Ltd. (CSE: NUKV) ("Nuclear Vision" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Derrick Dao, Chief Executive Officer of Nuclear Vision, to the Company's Board of Directors. Concurrently, Mr. Greg Cameron has stepped down from the Board.

The Company thanks Mr. Cameron for his valuable contributions.

This change follows the recent appointment of Mr. Andrey Shutov as Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Shutov previously served as President of Uranium One Group, a company wholly owned by Rosatom, one of the largest nuclear organizations in the world.

"I am honoured to join the Board of Nuclear Vision as we continue to transition and strengthen the Company's leadership team and drive our uranium exploration and M&A strategy," said Derrick Dao, Chief Executive Officer of Nuclear Vision. "With seasoned leadership now in place, we are well-positioned to begin exploration activities and actively pursue accretive M&A opportunities."

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Information:

This news release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation (collectively, "forward-looking information") based on expectations, estimates and projections as at the date of this news release. Forward-looking information involves risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual events, results, performance, prospects and opportunities to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking information. For the purposes of this release, forward-looking information includes, but is not limited to, the implementation of the objectives, goals and future plans of the Company including the proposed advancement of the UA92 uranium project as currently contemplated; the intended acceleration and scaling of proprietary exploration program; the proposed deployment of advanced exploration techniques designed to improve efficiency in resource delineation and project development; the pursuit of near-term M&A opportunities across emerging uranium districts; and the potential for the Company to become a next-generation uranium leader. These forward-looking statements, by their nature, require the Company to make certain assumptions and necessarily involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking information include, but are not limited to, capital and operating costs varying significantly from estimates; the preliminary nature of drilling and metallurgical test results; the ability of exploration results to predict mineralization; the ability of the Company to implement its drilling, geoscience and metallurgical work on its properties and work plans generally and on the timing anticipated; the risk that the Company will not be able to utilize advance exploration techniques; the risk that the Company will not be able to execute acquisitions to expand its uranium portfolio; delays in obtaining or failures to obtain required governmental, environmental or other project approvals; uncertainties relating to the availability and costs of financing needed in the future; changes in equity markets; inflation; fluctuations in commodity prices; delays in the development of projects; the other risks involved in the mineral exploration and development industry; and those risks set out in the Company's filings on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca) under the Company's issuer profile. Although the Company believes that the assumptions and factors used in preparing the forward-looking information in this news release are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on such information, which only applies as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, other than as required by law.
