West Point Gold Corp. (TSXV: WPG) (OTCQB: WPGCF) (FSE: LRA0) ("West Point Gold" or the "Company") is pleased to announce changes to its management team and Board of Directors.

Derek Macpherson, most recently Executive Chairman of the Company, has been appointed President and CEO. Mr. Macpherson has stepped down as Chairman but remains a Director. Quentin Mai has stepped down as President and CEO and has resigned as a Director. Mr. Mai will continue as an advisor to the Company.

Andrew Bowering has been appointed as Director of West Point Gold. Additionally, Anthony Paterson, current Lead Director, has been appointed Chairman. All changes are effective November 8, 2025.

"Since joining as an advisor earlier this year, I have seen first-hand the potential scale of the Gold Chain Project and am confident the Company is positioned for growth. With drills turning and a well-funded treasury, there's plenty of opportunity to build value in market conditions we haven't seen in years. This is exactly the kind of opportunity I look for," stated Andrew Bowering, Director

"Andrew brings a proven record of execution in the capital markets and building successful mining companies, including Prime Mining, which was recently acquired in a successful transaction. His network and strategic insight come at an important time as West Point Gold advances its exploration programs and works toward the next phase of growth," stated Anthony Paterson, Chairman.

"We would like to sincerely thank Quentin for the work that he has done over the last year. He has played a key role in transforming West Point's shareholder base and helping to move the Company to the next level. We wish him all the best in his future endeavours, and we look forward to continuing to work with him as an advisor to the Company," stated Derek Macpherson, President, CEO, and Director.

Andrew Bowering is a renowned venture capitalist with over 35 years of experience building shareholder value through mineral exploration, project development, strategic acquisitions and large-scale equity financings. He has founded, funded, and led teams in the pursuit of various metals, from initial exploration to production. Mr. Bowering has held senior management roles, overseeing asset acquisitions and sales, and raising over $500 million in development capital. He was the founder, director, and a large shareholder of Prime Mining Corp, which was recently acquired by Torex Gold Resources, and continues those roles with Apollo Silver. He co-founded Millennial Lithium Corp. (acquired by Lithium Americas) and is actively involved in other publicly traded companies in the battery and precious metals sectors.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS:

Certain statements contained in this press release constitute forward-looking information. These statements relate to future events or future performance. Forward-looking statements include estimates and statements that describe the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, including words to the effect that the Company or management expects a stated condition or result to occur. The use of any of the words "could", "intend", "expect", "believe", "will", "projected", "estimated" and similar expressions and statements relating to matters that are not historical facts are intended to identify forward-looking information and are based on the Company's current belief or assumptions as to the outcome and timing of such future events including, among others, assumptions about future prices of gold, silver, and other metal prices, currency exchange rates and interest rates, favourable operating conditions, political stability, obtaining government approvals and financing on time, obtaining renewals for existing licenses and permits and obtaining required licenses and permits, labour stability, stability in market conditions, availability of equipment, availability of drill rigs, and anticipated costs and expenditures. The Company cautions that all forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and that actual performance may be affected by a number of material factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. Such factors include, among other things: risks and uncertainties relating to West Point Gold's ability to complete any payments or expenditures required under the Company's various option agreements for its projects; and other risks and uncertainties relating to the actual results of current exploration activities, the uncertainties related to resources estimates; the uncertainty of estimates and projections in relation to production, costs and expenses; risks relating to grade and continuity of mineral deposits; the uncertainties involved in interpreting drill results and other exploration data; the potential for delays in exploration or development activities; uncertainty related to the geology, grade and continuity of mineral deposits; the possibility that future exploration, development or mining results may vary from those expected; statements about expected results of operations, royalties, cash flows, financial position may not be consistent with the Company's expectations due to accidents, equipment breakdowns, title and permitting matters, labour disputes or other unanticipated difficulties with or interruptions in operations, fluctuating metal prices, unanticipated costs and expenses, uncertainties relating to the availability and costs of financing needed in the future and regulatory restrictions, including environmental regulatory restrictions. The possibility that future exploration, development or mining results will not be consistent with adjacent properties and the Company's expectations; operational risks and hazards inherent with the business of mining (including environmental accidents and hazards, industrial accidents, equipment breakdown, unusual or unexpected geological or structural formations, cave-ins, flooding and severe weather); metal price fluctuations; environmental and regulatory requirements; availability of permits, failure to convert estimated mineral resources to reserves; the inability to complete a feasibility study which recommends a production decision; the preliminary nature of metallurgical test results; fluctuating gold prices; possibility of equipment breakdowns and delays, exploration cost overruns, availability of capital and financing, general economic, political risks, market or business conditions, regulatory changes, timeliness of government or regulatory approvals and other risks involved in the mineral exploration and development industry, and those risks set out in the filings on SEDAR made by the Company with securities regulators. Although the Company believes that the assumptions and factors used in preparing the forward-looking information in this corporate press release are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on such information, which only applies as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. The Company expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, other than as required by applicable securities legislation.
