

Aurizon Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends Shareholders Reject the Alamos Hostile Take-Over Bid

23.01.2013 | Marketwire

Determines Alamos Bid Is Financially Inadequate

Adopts Shareholder Rights Plan To Enable Board To Explore Full Range of Value-enhancing Alternatives

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA -- (Marketwire) -- 01/23/13 -- The Board of Directors of Aurizon Mines Ltd. (TSX: ARZ) (NYSE MKT: AZK) has unanimously recommended that shareholders reject the hostile take-over bid received from Alamos Gold ("the Offer").

George Brack, Chair of the Special Committee of the Aurizon Board of Directors said, "This is a financially inadequate and opportunistic offer, timed to take advantage of a transition year for Aurizon that we believe will be the foundation of long-term value creation for our shareholders. It fails to compensate Aurizon shareholders for the true value of our assets. We also believe there is increased geopolitical and development risk associated with Alamos shares."

Mr. Brack added, "The Board and Special Committee are focused on exploring the full range of value-maximizing alternatives for the Company. These include building on existing initiatives and engaging in discussions with third parties regarding potential alternative transactions that create superior shareholder value."

The Board's recommendation is based in part on the recommendation of the Special Committee and the advice from financial advisors to Aurizon and the Special Committee and follows a thorough review process, undertaken in consultation with its financial and legal advisors.

Reasons to Reject The Alamos Hostile Bid

The principal factors considered by the Board of Directors in making their determination to recommend that shareholders REJECT the Alamos Offer and NOT TENDER their Aurizon shares include:

The Alamos Offer is financially inadequate:

The value of the Alamos Offer is less than $4.65 per share.

- The Alamos Offer, based on the closing price of Alamos on the TSX on January 22, 2013, represented a value of $4.55 per Share assuming full pro-ration of the Alamos Offer consideration. This is a 4.1% discount to the closing price of Aurizon's Shares on the TSX on the same day and a 21% discount to the 52-week high share price of Aurizon.

- The $4.65 price has never been available to Aurizon Shareholders, based on the implied offer value, since the Alamos Offer announcement was made. Based on the current Alamos Offer value of $4.55 per Share, the effective premium to Aurizon Shareholders has eroded 4% relative to the closing price of the Aurizon Shares on January 11, 2013, the last trading day before the Alamos Offer announcement was made.

- Scotia Capital Inc. and CIBC World Markets Inc. have each delivered a written opinion to the Board of Directors and Special Committee, respectively, that as of January 22, 2013, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration offered under the Alamos Offer for the Aurizon Shares is inadequate from a financial point of view to the Aurizon shareholders, other than Alamos and its affiliates.

The timing of the Alamos Offer is opportunistic:

- Casa Berardi is currently undergoing a transition phase in its mine plan, and therefore the recent operating results from Casa Berardi are not reflective of its normalized operations, and the longer term prospects for Aurizon which remain unchanged.

- The Alamos Offer was made at a time when Aurizon's Shares were trading at its lowest levels since December 2008. It was timed to take advantage of a depressed Aurizon share price following the announcement on November 8, 2012 of Aurizon's third quarter 2012 financial results and revised guidance for 2012.

- The day prior to the release of Aurizon's third quarter 2012 financial results, Aurizon's Shares traded above the Alamos Offer price.

The Alamos Offer is disadvantageous to Aurizon shareholders, other than Alamos and its affiliates:

- Aurizon Shareholders would own a maximum of approximately 16% of the combined company, and thus, significantly decreasing their exposure to Aurizon's assets; and

- Aurizon would be contributing proportionately more to the combined company in terms of 2013 forecast gold production, gold reserves and gold resources.

The Board also has serious concerns about unequal treatment of Aurizon shareholders as a result of Alamos having entered into private share purchase agreements with certain shareholders of Aurizon immediately prior to the commencement of the Alamos Offer.

The Board's recommendation that the Aurizon shareholders REJECT the Alamos Offer and DO NOT TENDER their Aurizon Shares, as well as a more detailed discussion of its reasons for rejecting the Alamos offer and the written opinions provided by Scotia Capital Inc. and CIBC World Markets Inc., are contained in a Directors' Circular that will be filed today, a copy of which will be available at www.sedar.com, www.aurizon.com/maximizevalue and as part of the Schedule 14D-9 to be filed by Aurizon on EDGAR and available at www.sec.gov. Copies of the Director's Circular are being mailed to all shareholders and shareholders are urged to read the Directors' Circular and accompanying letter in its entirety.

Adoption of Shareholder Rights Plan

The Aurizon Board of Directors also announced today that it has adopted a shareholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan") to provide the Board with adequate time to identify, develop and negotiate value-enhancing alternatives, if appropriate, to any unsolicited take-over bid, including the Alamos Offer and to encourage equal treatment of shareholders in connection with any take-over bid offer. The Rights Plan is not intended to prevent a take-over of Aurizon or to secure continuance in office of management or the directors. While the Rights Plan is immediately effective, it remains subject to regulatory approval. The Company intends to seek shareholder ratification of the Rights Plan at a special meeting of shareholders to be held on March 7, 2013. A copy of the Rights Plan will be filed today and will be available at www.sedar.com, www.aurizon.com/maximizevalue and as part of the registration statement on Form 8-A to be filed by Aurizon and available at www.sec.gov.
