10.02.2015 | Marketwire

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Feb 10, 2015) - Aurcana Corp. ("Aurcana" or the "Company") (TSX VENTURE:AUN)(OTCQX:AUNFF) announces that it has entered into an agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") to settle the class action litigation commenced by Nunzio Cardillo and John Wituluk in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Action") against the Company and two former executives of the Company (the "Settlement").

The Settlement provides for the full and final settlement, release and dismissal of all claims brought under the Action. The Settlement is subject to customary conditions, including the receipt of court approval of the Settlement.

Under the terms of the Settlement, the Company will pay an aggregate of $4,000,000 (the "Settlement Amount"), which amount, net of legal fees and other costs, will be divided among members of the plaintiff class on a pro rata basis. The Settlement Amount will be fully funded by insurance maintained by the Company, and the Company does not anticipate that the payment of the Settlement Amount will have any effect on the Company's cash position or operations.

The Company elected to enter into the Settlement in order to avoid the expense, burden and inconvenience associated with the continuance of the Action. The Settlement does not constitute an admission by the Company of any violation of law or other wrongdoing.

Kevin Drover, the Company's President and CEO, states, "We are pleased that a settlement of the class action litigation has been reached and will not have an impact on Aurcana's cash position. The Company remains fully focused on continuing to improve the operation and profitability of the La Negra mine."
